

It is not the place of broadcaster's who use the airwaves belonging to all the people by permission of all the people to serve the causes and interests of some of them at the expense of others. By airing a one sided propaganda vehicle in the weeks before the election without an equally biased counterpart Sinclair serves only some of the public at the expense of most of the rest.